

10

Things You Need to Know About Using Artificial Intelligence for HR

- 1. By 2022, one in five workers engaged in mostly nonroutine tasks will rely on AI to do a job.
Source: Gartner
- 2. Artificial intelligence will create more jobs than it eliminates by the year 2020.
Source: Gartner
- 3. Investment in AI has accelerated from $282 million in 2011 to $2.4 billion in 2015, a 746% increase in five years!
Source: World Economic Forum
- 4. 80% of today's project management tasks will be eliminated by 2030 as artificial intelligence takes over.
Source: Gartner
- 5. 72% of HR and business leaders believe use of AI is important or very important, but only 31% feel ready to address it.
Source: Deloitte Human Capital Trends
- 6. Digitalizing HR is the top-priority initiative for Chief Human Resources Officers.
Source: Gartner
- 7. 41% of business executives admit they have not adopted AI because they are unsure how it can help their organization.
Source: McKinsey
- 8. 63% of companies are rethinking the role of HR in light of AI's impact on business.
Source: PwC
- 9. 59% of employers identified not understanding the opportunities of AI as a barrier to adopting new technologies.
Source: World Economic Forum
- 10. 49% of employers use AI and advanced data analytics for recruiting and hiring.
Source: Littler's 2018 Annual Employer Survey

Become Certified in Using AI4HR

Using AI4HR to Enhance the Employee Experience is a five-week online course that will show you how to implement AI across the entire employee lifecycle, from recruiting to onboarding, internal talent mobility, learning & development, and coaching.